Annual Meeting May 6th Features Dolley Madison

The annual meeting of the Seymour Community Historical society will be held Saturday, May 5 with a return visit from popular actress Jessica Michna who will portray Dolley Madison. This will be an exceptional program. Circle the date, May 5 at 1:00. Her performance will follow a brief business meeting. Admission is free and refreshments will be served. The program is open to the public.

Dolley Madison – “The Lady Who Saved Washington”

Charming, flamboyant and strong willed, Dolley was tested in the calamity of the War of 1812. Born into a Quaker family, Dolley was raised to be obedient and well behaved. Early in her life she married a man selected by her father. Dolley would soon be strengthened by adversity. Widowed at an early age she would soon be courted by Congressman James Madison. As First Lady, Dolley would become the Grand Dame of Washington.

Outstanding Program with Jessica Michna

Jessica Michna, recipient of the Presidential Service Center's Distinguished Service Award, has become widely known for her riveting portrayals of First Ladies and other historic women as well as her fictitious characters. She has entertained groups throughout America including guests from as far away as New Zealand, Japan and Brazil. Audiences ranging from young children to senior citizens have been equally enthralled. She has appeared before historical societies, schools, libraries, living history museums, senior centers, churches, and has been guest hostess at parties and weddings.

Mrs. Michna's performances are compelling and emotionally enthralling. Audiences laugh along with her humorous anecdotes. They share in her tears as she relates how the horrors of war have impacted families. She has a powerful effect on an audience. Once they have seen one of her characters they can't wait to see the next one.

Back by popular demand, this is Jessica's fourth appearance in Seymour. Her portrayals of Mary Todd Lincoln, Eleanor Roosevelt and Helen Keller were exceptional. Be prepared for another outstanding program.

A Message from the Board of Directors

As the historical society prepares for another busy summer season we want to take this opportunity to thank all our volunteers and members who have generously donated toward the operation of the museum. We have made a number of improvements in the museum including all LED lighting. It was too expensive to install when the building was built, but costs have come down significantly, and our utility bill will reflect the improvement.

In addition to preserving area history and making it available to the public, the Seymour Community Historical Society strives to continue to build our oral history and pictorial archive. In this issue of the Seymour History Bulletin you will find a summary of past museum activities and a exhibits coming up this summer and fall. We have included a copy of our annual report including the society budget. We have been putting in long hour preparing the Sesquicentennial pictorial history book. We have included a description of what the book will contain. Our reliable author, Lynn Koenigs, takes a look back at the year 1931 and how it was portrayed in the Seymour High School newspaper. And of course, all of us are looking forward to warmer weather and Music in the Park. You will find a schedule in this newsletter.

Our members are our most valuable asset. We cannot play a viable role without your support. Please use the form at the end of this publication to make a donation to the society. All gifts to the historical society are used to help meet expenses and for improvements in the museum.

Special Exhibits at the Museum this Spring and Summer

WWI Beyond the Trenches: Stories from the Front May 27 to June 17

Over 122,000 Wisconsin men and women served on land, sea, and in the air during World War I.

The Wisconsin Veterans Museum marks the centennial of the First World War with the opening of a major exhibit featuring an up close and personal look at the Great War through the eyes of Wisconsin veterans. Wisconsin Public Radio, Wisconsin Public Television and the Wisconsin

Veterans Museum are pleased to share their exhibit with museums throughout the state. The Seymour Community Historical society is thrilled to be among the organizations selected to feature the traveling display. Plan to visit the Seymour Community Museum after the Memorial Day program or during the first two weeks in June. Help honor the memory of Seymour area veterans during the celebration of the centennial recognizing the end of World War I.

Vintage Toy Show July 1 to August 19

Toys and Collectibles of all Types from 1900 to the Present

The museum has a large collection of Antique Toys and they will all be on display. Check your attic and storage areas, and help add to this exhibit. You can donate your vintage toys to the museum or arrange to loan them for this fun exhibit. The society has plans to include all of the following: tin wind-up toys, cast iron toys, hamburger toys, die-cast and model cars, robots and space toys, action figures, model kits, farm toys, character toys, Star Wars and sci-fi toys, toy soldiers, dolls, miniatures, comics, games, holiday items and more!

Art Show featuring the Photography of Lamont Kraft Sept. 8 to 24

The photography of Seymour resident Lamont Kraft has been a hit at art shows throughout Wisconsin. The SCHS is pleased to feature his work for two weeks in September. Kraft describes his work on his website, (naturesedgebykraft.com). "My goal with photography is to project a reflection through my images of a specific moment in time and location. Emphasis in my photography is to get it spot on in the camera using camera features and setting adjustments as well as different lenses. If I don't get it spot on in the camera, I will not use it. Also, nothing is ever added to or subtracted from the image. I will sometimes use a process to even out high contrast scenes to achieve an image of rich color and depth. This is an artistic technique that has become popular with many of my customers.

The SCHS will host a "Meet the Artist Night" Saturday, September 8, from 5:00 to 8:00. Admission is free and refreshments will be served. The program is open to the public.

St. Agnes Returns to Seymour

Thanks to the efforts of life-time member Duane Ebert, the statue of St. Agnes that was on the altar of St. John the Baptist Church for almost a century has returned to Seymour. Duane, who is a member of Saint Francis Xavier Cathedral Parish in Green Bay, contacted the SCHS when he heard the statue was being moved. With the remodeling of the cathedral, a number of items that were in the small museum were being phased out. The statue is now in the Seymour Museum in the exhibit showing the sanctuary of the church as it looked in 1960. Ron Nachtwey is building a pedestal that will lift the statue up so it is displayed next to the picture.

Music in the Park - 2018

Sesquicentennial Pictorial History Book

The historical society volunteers who organized and edited the commemorative book are excited about the finished product. It is a hardcover book of 210 pages with over 500 photographs. Many of the pictures are from the archives of the society, while other have been recently donated by area residents. Thank you to everyone who contributed in some way. It certainly was a community effort. The books are expected to be available by the end of June. They will be for sale at the museum for $30.00. # Old.....But Interesting: A Look back at 1931

Facts gathered by Lynn E. Koenigs

The year 1931 saw the doubling of unemployment to 16.3%, and everybody realized that the stock market crash of 1929 was having far reaching effects. The US government started making some progress on the mob and a notable success was the conviction of Al Capone on tax fraud charges which got him an 11 year prison sentence in Alcatraz. Many car manufacturers also went out of business as people did not have money to buy new cars.

One of the few successes was the completion of the Empire State Building, and in Las Vegas the small local community made the decision to legalize gambling. Nature even conspired to make things worse by causing a serious drought in the Midwest which in turn made food more expensive and turned some areas into dust bowls.

1931 NEWS FROM SEYMOUR HIGH SCHOOL

(Taken from See-More High Spots-the school newspaper from 1931-various articles from the year).

- The first year business training students are studying about the telegraph and telephone.
- Every Friday is Current Event Day in Citizenship Class. World topics are given and the best ones are put on the bulletin board. This way we have read something besides the comics once a week.
- We juniors are always fighting, first about one thing and then another. Our present gang fight is about the selection of our class rings and design.
- The freshman class is working on the prevention of fires and heating and ventilating buildings. The students were taken into our furnace room and shown how our school is heated.
- The latest fad for the boys is medicated cough

- drops and the girls are introducing a liberal supply of perfume.
- As a result of a recent decision of the high school activity council the preliminary steps are being taken this week. Radio dealers of the city have been invited to submit their set as a test. The final decision will be made by the council after all sets have been tried and compared. The radio will be paid for out of the funds received from the sale of magazines during the past two years.
- On Thursday afternoon, we had the pleasure of listening to five different radios which were on trial in the assembly. Those demonstrated were the Victor, General Electric, Philco, and Majestic. The Philco was chosen by the committee.
- A new Philco radio has been set up and installed in the office. Plans are being made to find some way to hook it up with the Assembly Room and other parts of the building. Various programs will be listened to in the different rooms.
- The freshman class is reading Treasure Island. We are all working our gray matter to write a story on some buried treasure. We are determined to write another one on Mistaken Identity if we ever get finished with our first one.
- The school has received the first ten volumes of the encyclopedia "The Americana." This is a 1931 revision. The other twenty volumes will follow as soon as they have been published.
- The Prom is only nine days off and every minute it approaches closer. We hope there will be a large attendance and that everyone will have a good time. Remember the date, May 20, and invite all your neighbors and friends. The admission is $1.25 and 25 cents for spectators.

- We have just completed a story about a foreigner coming to America. The students also wrote a theme on "What America Means to Me". One of our "cut ups" said that it meant a place to hang her hat and park her gum.

Perhaps because of tough financial times, the class of 1931 did not have a yearbook. The historical society does have a picture on file.

Yes, 1931 was sure interesting!

Seymour Community Historical Society Annual Report for 2017

It was another busy year for the Seymour Community Historical Society as reflected in the following statistical summary. One of the highlights of the winter was the Kids' Christmas. Board member Janice Eick organized a program to purchase and wrap 92 Christmas presents. Assisted by her sisters Joan and Jean, the upstairs of the museum was decorated in a Christmas cartoon theme featuring cartoon characters from popular movies. Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus made an appearance to distribute gifts and listen to the requests of the children.

A number of upgrades took place at the museum. Bay Ridge Electric converted the traditional lighting to LED. The new system brightens up the facility while saving money. The adjustable lights will be a great asset when hosting art shows and special exhibits. After forty years in the jewelry business Kathy Cumicek Smits retired. It was thoughtful and generous of her to donate the display cases from the store for use in the museum. Members of the historical society made several trips to the store and returned to the museum with four beautiful cases. Thank you Kathy. It is impressive how people in the community and others with ties to community continue to support the museum.
